

Citylight School of Missions FAQs

Q: How long is the Program?

A: Our School of Missions will run in Fall and Spring Semesters. Our Fall Semester will always take place around mid-August to mid-December while our Spring Semester will take place in mid-January to mid-May.

Q: Where is the program located?

A: We are located in Falls Church, VA which falls in the Northern Virginia DC area.

Q: Will housing be provided?

A: Yes, housing as well as food will be provided.

Q: Do I need to have my own mode of transportation?

A: While it is helpful and recommended that you may have your own vehicle, it is not required.

Q: Is there a limit on how many people will get accepted into the program?

A: Yes, as of right now we are only accepting up to 10 students into the program. Each applicant will go through an application process and will make a decision based off of who we believe will be the best fit for the program.

Q: Can I have a part time job while I do this program?

A: No, unfortunately we need your full time and attention, therefore we ask that if you commit to the program that it be your one and only job.

Q: Is there an age limit on the program?

A: Our mission's program is open to anyone from the age of 18-35.

Q: Will I get to go overseas?

A: Yes! One month of the program will be spent in one of the countries that we partner with as a Church. There you will be doing full-time missions, putting into practice all that you learned throughout the teaching portion of the school.

Q: Do I have to pay for the program?

A: Within the year of 2024 the program will be 100% free. In 2025 and onward, the program will no longer be free. The cost will be determined based on what country we will be staying in that semester and what means will need to be met regarding that trip.

Q: What if I can't afford the school?

A: Don't let money be the reason that keeps you from participating in the school! We will walk alongside you in helping you start your fundraising process. We have many resources and tools that will help make fundraising easy for you!

Q: How is my time spent in the program? What will I be doing?

A: The program is broken down into three buckets: Personal & spiritual growth, Biblical & practical training, and local (DC area) & global missions work (oversees with partner country). The time breakdown will look a little like this: 20 hours of field work, 15 hours of training, and 5 hours of on campus responsibilities. Almost every day you will be out doing local field work reaching people through a variety of ways including but not limited to kid's programs, outreach programs, college ministry, and door to door evangelism.

Q: What will I be learning in my training?

A: Our training will be revolved around evangelistic activity and Biblical teachings that may include but are not limited to: Cross cultural ministry, missions in the Bible, evangelism, apologetics, and healing ministry.
